A Brief History of the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina

Compiled (from a Draft of the late J. Harvey Wilson, Esq., and from the Church Records) at the Request of the Session, and supplemented by order of Session by Geo. E. Wilson so as to bring it down to May 1, 1909.

The property now owned by the Trustees (viz., the square,) was donated by the Commissioners of the town of Charlotte to the citizens thereof, for the purpose of being improved by them to give accomodation for religious services to all denominations, the title thereto being retained by said Commissioners.

The population of the town at that time was quite small, not exceeding three hundred (300) in number. There was no church of any denomination in the place.

In pursuance of the license thus given by the Commissioners, the citizens of the town undertook the erection of a church building of brick, on said square. The principal contributors thereto were Presbyterians, consisting mainly of Capt. Wm. Davidson, John Irwin, William Smith, Wm. Carson and a few others.

When the improvement was completed, it was ascertained that a debt had been incurred to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars. This indebtedness was discharged by a loan of money obtained from an agency of the Bank of Newberne, which had been established in said town, of which Capt. Wm. Davidson was the chief officer.

To raise the money to pay the indebtedness, the Commissioners of the town were induced to make a corporate note for the amount, which was negotiated in said bank. This application was made and granted upon the ground that the title to the property thus improved was retained by the corporate authorities. This debt was carried by the bank until about the year 1832 about which time the charter of the bank expired. This debt, at that day, was regarded as quite "an incubus" upon the town.

When the payment became a necessity, Mr. John Irwin, who was desirous of securing the property for the Presbyterians of the town, proposed to the Board of Commissioners, that if they would convey the property to him, he would advance the money and pay off the debt. This proposal was readily acceded to by the corporate authorities, and a deed accordingly was made to him for the property. In a short time after this transaction, Mr. Irwin took up a subscription among the Presbyterians of the place, and raised the money for his reimbursement, he being a liberal subscriber to that end. He subsequently conveyed the property to the Trustees of the church. This transaction on the part of Mr. Irwin was strictly consistent with fairness and propriety, for the reason that the property had been improved mainly by Presbyterian money. The congregation should always bear in mind the debt of gratitude it owes to Mr. John Irwin for his liberality and activity in securing the property for the Presbyterian Church.

The Dedication Sermon was preached in August, 1823, by the Rev. Dr. McCree, Pastor of Centre Church, Iredell county. In a fervent strain, he prayed: "We invoke Thy blessing, O Lord! upon the Christian people who have erected this beautiful temple, which we now dedicate to Thy service. We pray Thee to accept it as their offering. Let Thy blessing ever rest upon it, from the stone which sleeps at its foundation to the gilded ball which blazes upon the pinnacle of its spire!"

The congregation was first supplied by the Rev. Samuel Caldwell, Pastor of Sugar Creek Church, one-fourth of his time, until his death in 1826.

The little band next enjoyed, once in three weeks, the ministry of the Rev. R. H. Morrison, Pastor of Sugar Creek Church.

In this venerable mother church, their membership was held, until the 4th Sabbath of August, 1832, when the Charlotte Church was organized by the Rev. Dr. Morrison, with 36 members, and Messrs. David Parks and Nathan B. Carroll, Ruling Elders.

In January, 1833, the Rev. A. J. Leavenworth became stated supply, and on Saturday, May 3, 1834, was installed the first Pastor; Dr. Morrison preaching the sermon, and Dr. John Robinson (of famous memory) giving the charges. Mr. Leavenworth's pastorate, during which 58 additions were made to the Church, continued to the close of 1838, when a vacancy occurred.

The church was next supplied for some months, first by the Rev. Thos. Owen, then by the Rev. John M. Caldwell, then by the Rev. Harper Caldwell.

The Rev. J. F. W. Freeman became stated supply in 1842, and so continued to the close of 1845. Additions during his term, 31.

The Rev. Cyrus Johnston was installed Pastor, May 23, 1846. His useful and honored career was cut short by sudden death, January 25, 1855. During Dr. Johnston's pastorate of eight years and eight months there were 118 additions to the Church.

The Rev. A. W. Miller, of South Carolina succeeded as pastor, in June, 1855, and continued till April, 1857. During the second year of his pastorate, the work of erecting a new church on the site of the old, was commenced, and completed in 1857. In the interval, the congregation worshipped in the Court House.

In 1856, a call from the Tabb St. Church, Petersburg, Va., was received by the Pastor, but the Church declined to unite in the request for the dissolution of the pastoral relation. The Session said: "By acceding to this request, we would be doing violence to the feelings and views of the Church, whose organ we are, as recently expressed by them in a congregational capacity, at which they declared, with entire unanimity, that this pastoral relation is, to them, in the highest degree satisfactory."

In 1857, this call was renewed, and accepted by the Pastor.

The Rev. Alexander Sinclair succeeded as Pastor in November, 1857, and continued (interrupted by feeble health for a season, when the pulpit was supplied by the Rev. J. L. Kirkpatrick, President of Davidson College) to the close of 1864. During his pastorate of seven years, there were 122 additions to the church.

After the war, the Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller was recalled from Petersburg to Charlotte, and became Pastor, the second time, October 15, 1865, filling the pulpit till the time of his death, January 10th, 1892.

In the year 1876 a comfortable Manse was built for the Pastor and his family.

Owing to the growth of Presbyterianism in the city the Second Presbyterian Church was organized October 22, 1873. This enterprise was liberally aided by the First Presbyterian Church, whose Pastor was the first to advocate it in Charlotte.

Rev. E. Mack served the Church as stated supply from April 1st, 1892, to April 1, 1893, when he was elected Pastor, but could not see his way clear to accept the call.

On the 8th day of April, 1893, Rev. Jno. A. Preston, D. D., was called to the Pastorate of this Church, from the Presbyterian Church of Florence, Ala. On the 15th of the same month he conducted the services in the Church, and preached for our people. He returned to Alabama, and in a short time thereafter, accepted the call. On the 23rd of May he preached his first sermon as our Pastor.

On the 12th of March 1894, the first definite step looking to the erection of the present Church building, was taken.

This was a resolution passed by the Session, as follows:

"Resolved that it is the opinion of the Session that some steps be taken toward the improvement of our Church building, and that a joint meeting of the Elders and Deacons be convened, at an early date, to consider this subject."

A meeting of the Elders and Deacons, in accordance with the above resolution, was held on Thursday night, following.

At this meeting it was determined to improve the Church building, and a committee was appointed, consisting of two Elders, two Deacons and two members of the congregation, which committee was given full power to make such improvements as the needs of the congregation demanded.

In pursuance of the power conferred upon this committee, the present Church building was erected. Too much credit cannot be given to its Chairman, Mr. R. M. Miller, for his services rendered in this capacity. Mr. Miller was not only competent, but he was practical. He gave to the erection of the building, not only the benefit of his large experience, and judgement, but, practically, the whole of his time. Day in and day out he was on the ground, consulting and advising with the builder, Mr. Hill, and our people owe a debt of gratitude to him greater than to any other person, for the beautiful Church, in which we now worship, and in which we have a commendable pride.

On Tuesday, the 17th day of July, 1894, the corner stone of the building was put in place, with appropriate ceremonies. A large platform had been erected, upon which were seated the Ministers of the City, the Officers of the Church and Choir. After a short service, Dr. Preston made an address, in which he said, among other things, "We lay this stone in the full hope that the Grace of God will still be with us, and that true piety may characterize our dealings." Mr. Miller, the chairman of the building committee, then placed the stone in position, as the audience rose to its feet to witness the event.

In the corner stone were deposited a Bible, the Confession of Faith, Photographs of Rev. Dr. Morrison, Rev. Dr.

Miller, Rev. Mr. Sinclair, Rev. Mr. Mack and Rev. Dr. Preston; a pamphlet on Home Missions, by Rev. Dr. McIlwaine; Address of Hon. Wm. A. Graham, upon the Mecklenberg Declaration of Independence of the 20th of May, 1775; also a paper on the same subject by Dr. George and Professor A. Graham; a copy of the Charlotte Observer, containing accounts of the actions of the Church, in regard to undertaking the improvement of the building, the other city papers, including a copy of the Charlotte News of July 17th, 1894; a copy of the Charlotte Observer, containing a Memorial of Rev. Dr. Miller, and an account of his funeral.

During the time consumed in the construction of the Church building, the congregation worshipped in the Auditorium of the Y. M. C. A., which was then located on South Tryon Street, between 3rd and 4th Streets, and which has since been acquired by the American Trust Company.

On the 17th day of November, 1895, the Building Committee returned the Church to the Congregation.

The total cost of the Church, including the improvements to the Manse, and building a fence around the property, was thirty-one thousand, five hundred and two dollars.

Dr. Preston's Pastorate lasted only about three years. He died of Typhoid Fever in Lexington, Va., on the 13th of Sept., 1896, and his remains were interred in the cemetery, at that place, beside those of his own people and kindred.

He was a man of consecration and deep piety, of a strong personality, genial and kind, and won his way into the hearts not only of his own Congregation, but all of the City. His death was lamented by the Church, at large, and was nothing short of a calamity to his own people.

Rev. James R. Howerton, D. D., followed Dr. Preston, as Pastor. He was called from the First Presbyterian Church of Norfolk, Va., on the 8th day of November, 1896, accepted the call, and was duly installed Pastor on the 21st day of February, 1897.

Dr. Howerton was a fine Preacher, and his labors were abundantly blessed. He resigned the Pastorate on the 30th day of September, 1906, having served the Church ten years, in order to take up the work at Montreat, in the Western part of the State. It may not be amiss to say, that the Montreat Association was formed to bring together, during the summer, the Ministers and Members of the Presbyterian Church, for health, recreation and instruction upon the religious topics of the day.

This Association has the endorsement of the Synod of North Carolina, as well as that of the General Assembly of the Church.

It was thought that through this Association, a great impetus in Church work, would not only be inaugurated, but disseminated throughout the Churches of our Assembly, and this hope caused Dr. Howerton to assume the leadership of the movement.

After the resignation of Dr. Howerton, the Church called to the Pastorate, Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid, D. D., formerly pastor of Central Union Church, Honolulu, T. H. The call was extended to Dr. Kincaid, on the 24th day of March 1907, and in the following October he was duly installed Pastor. This Pastorate, which is still in existence has been remarkably fruitful, the Church having received large accessions to its membership, under his ministry.

The present membership of the Church is eight hundred and fifty-five.

Our Church, under God, has exercised a wide influence for good in this community. Those who founded it in Prayer and Faith have gone to their reward. It remains for us to continue this good work by following in their footsteps, even as they followed in the footsteps of "The Master."

May we not be recreant to our duty, but actuated and encouraged by the example of the Saints, who have preceded us, let us push forward the work, for which the Church was instituted, viz: the Glory of God, the Salvation of Souls, and the Good of Humanity.

By Order of Session,
April, 1909.

Letter of the Pastor

My Dear People:-

Time in its rapid flight brings us to the close of another church year. It finds our beloved church unimpaired in its ability to carry on the great work which God has given it to do. It is still a most influential power for good in this community. The congregations have shown no abatement, notwithstanding the losses we have suffered in our membership through removals from the city. They have kept up to a very high average, and the preponderance of men, and especially of young men is an occasion for comment and rejoicing.

There has been a gratifying interest shown, as will be seen from the reports that follow, in the various activities of the church, both in spiritual and temporal affairs.

During the year the church has passed the eight hundredth mark in its membership. Upon the first of April, 1908, we had upon our roll 732 names. During the year we have added on "Confession of Faith," 40; by letter, 106; making a total addition of 146. Since the first of April, 3 have come into our membership on Confession of Faith, and 2 by letter. During the year ending April 1, 1909, we have dismissed by letter 20; we have lost by death, 8; since April 1, one other member has died. Our present membership is 855.

Your Pastor wishes to make a strong plea for loyalty to our church. Those who unite with us ought to attend our services, take part in our work, give for its support, and in every way try to foster the interests of the church. The First Presbyterian Church should have the first claim upon the time and claim of its members. Attention is called to the many who regularly worship with us but who do not materially contribute to the financial support of the Church and its work. While they are cordially welcome at all times, it is not improper to remind them that so great an organization requires a very large outlay; and that if all would do their part in this matter, the financial burden of the Church would not rest heavily upon any one. Every obligation would be easily met, and we would be able to enlarge our work as opportunity presents itself.

There are many ways in which we can all aid in drawing others to our services and into our membership: the chief of which part of is by cultivating the social spirit, making strangers welcome to our church home. We want to get the whole congregation in the way of speaking to each other, and to cultivate such a spirit that no one can enter the building without feeling a warm, Christ-like atmosphere. On the other hand, it is well for those who come to us from time to time to remember that those become best acquainted who enter most heartily into the work. The prayer meeting is the best place to form acquaintances as it is more social in its character. We have a way of stopping and greeting each other after it is over that is very helpful in getting acquainted. The same is true of the meetings in the different departments of the Women's Work. They are not only accomplishing much in the various lines they represent; they also make a bond of friendship among those who devote themselves to the work.

The Pastor has tried during the two years of his pastorate to call at least three times a year on every family connected with the congregation, and, when the number of members is considered, this is by no means a slight task. He would greatly appreciate it if you will call on him and his family. This invitation applies particularly to those, whether members of the church or not, who are away from their own home and friends.

The Pastor would remind you how empty and barren all plans and organizations may after all be. There is a possibility that the bustle and circumstances of such efforts may divert us from the inwardness, the faith and the prayer, by which alone the Kingdom of God may come. In these days of stir and business therefore it is specially necessary to cultivate the habit of communion with God.

May your Pastor, then, appeal to you, as members of the church, to maintain the mid-week prayer service. There are a faithful few who are always present, and are ready with voice and heart to pray. To this faithful band the Pastor tenders his warmest thanks. Their prayers have helped him again and again.

But the comparative smallness of the number upon whom he can depend for this service, distresses him, because it shows that the church as a whole does not recognize the importance and necessity of united prayer, or at least does not see its way to make the personal sacrifices which are required in order to maintain this great powerhouse of the church.

The Pastor does not disguise from himself that prayer is the hardest, the most self-sacrificing work in the church. That is the simple reason why ten are ready to undertake any other form of activity to one who will pray in public.

The Pastor is asking for heroic sacrifice and self-surrender when he entreats you to pray, to gather together in prayer, at least once in the week, on behalf of the church, for the efficiency of our work and the salvation of the world.

The Pastor is speaking to every individual member of the church, young and old. He puts the question to you quite straight: will you make an effort to attend the prayer meeting? And will you come determined, by God's grace, to take your part in prayer? Of course we cannot pray as we ought without the Holy Spirit; but we cannot have the Spirit without definitely asking for the gift.

The Pastor is morally sure that if fifty or even twenty-five men would be present regularly at our mid-week service to ask for the Holy Spirit (after all, what a small proportion that is of our church members,) we should have Pentecost in the church, souls would be saved by hundreds, we should all be built up in our most holy faith, and we should all be prepared for our great work in the world.

And now, my dear people, let us rally together once more around the work of the church, doing with our might what our hands find to do; let us make the coming year very fruitful in good works; let us take as our motto: "Forgetting the things which are behind, we press on toward the goal for the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Your affectionate Pastor,

WILLIAM MORRIS KINCAID.

The Manse, April 1st, 1909.

The Session held sixty-seven meetings during the year and many matters of interest to the Church were considered.

A congregational meeting was held which authorized Session to employ a City Missionary with special view to work in Victor Mill settlement, and Miss Mary Lea was engaged to enter upon this important work on April 1st, 1909.

Elder R. A. Dunn represented the Church in Spring Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery at Huntersville, N. C., and both the Church and Presbytery were honored by his being elected Moderator.

The Church was represented in the Fall Meeting of Presbytery at Pleasant Hill by Elder Holmes Blair and at the Meeting of Synod, in Newbern, N. C., by Elder George E. Wilson.

THE CRADLE ROLL DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Wm. M. Kincaid, Superintendent.

HOME DEPARTMENT

Mrs. F. O. Hawley, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

The Cradle Roll Department is splendidly organized and has had as many as forty-two enrolled. Some of these, however, have been promoted and the enrollment now numbers thirty six.

There are fifty-eight scholars in the Primary Department—During the year just ended, one death has occurred—one of the teachers—Mrs. Amanda Pritchard, who for years had rendered faithful work in the Sunday School.

A Red Letter Day in the year was the Sunday after the 29th of October, when our Honorary Superintendent, Mrs. S. M. Howell, who for forty-four years (44) has been connected with the Primary Department of this Sunday School, put her pennies (one for each year) in the Birthday Bank. She is now past fourscore years, but attends regularly and takes part in the exercises of the Sunday School.

Sunday, January 31, 1909, sixteen children were promoted to the Junior Department. Each graduate received a Child's Certificate and a Testament for perfectly reciting the Catechism at one sitting.

At different times throughout the year, entertainments are arranged for the children. Those given last year were an "Egg Hunt" at Easter, a "Lawn Party" in May and a "Christmas Party" during the Holiday Season.

For years, it has been the custom to meet in the Sunday School Room on Tuesday before Thanksgiving and pack a box (or boxes) for the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs, N. C.

The Primary Department has contributed to all causes during the year April 1, 1908 to April 1, 1909—$73.99.

The growth and condition of the Junior Department has been very gratifying since its organization just a few years ago. Like the Primary Department, it is most too prosperous for its quarters, which are very inadequate and at times subject those in charge of these two branches of the School, to great inconvenience and embarrassment.

The whole amount given by the Junior Department during the year was over one hundred dollars. Most of this money is either contributed or sent in the shape of boxes and barrels full of good things to the Barium Springs Orphanage, the Alexander Rescue Home, the Albemarle School, the Plum Tree School, etc.

Two of our most enthusiastic classes in the Intermediate Department were graduated out of the Junior Room in January of this year.

The total enrollment of the Bible School, including the Victor Mill Mission, is four hundred and ninety-three (493). The average attendance of both teachers and scholars has been unusually good during the past year, to some extent due to the great number of beautiful Sabbaths during the winter months.

The number of children from the Bible School, who have joined the church this year, is more than usual, the number being about (24).

The largest collection in the history of the School is one hundred and thirty-five dollars ($135.00), which was taken the last Sunday before Christmas. This amount was instrumental in making a happy and joyous Christmas time for some eight or ten other schools, whose little children are less favored than our own.

For the last two years, there has been unusual interest evinced in the recitation of the Child's Catechism and the Shorter Catechism. In January, 1908, the School presented eleven (11) Bibles and nine (9) Testaments for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism and Child's Catechism at one sitting, and in January 1909, eight (8) Bibles and sixteen (16) Testaments.

The Library is in excellent condition. About (100) new books have been added and all of them have been numbered and catalogued. The Librarian will gladly issue Membership Cards to all, who wish to join.

Together with the Second Presbyterian Bible School, our School had a big picnic last year at Davidson College. A special train was chartered, and a large crowd enjoyed greatly the day on the Campus. There were base ball, swings and games of various kinds, also a big basket dinner.

For the coming year, the Bible School asks the active co-operation of the whole congregation. It is a field of effort where all may have a part. Attended with responsibility, it is true, and sometimes a little burdensome or discouraging perhaps, but still, it is a blessed work; then too, it has undoubtedly stamped upon it the approval of Him, who said: "Suffer the little children, and forbid them not to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

ROBERT GLASGOW, JR.

It may not be known to many who have recently come among us, that, just beyond the Southern depot, within six to ten blocks of our Church, is a community of about five hundred people, clustered around the Victor (now Continental) Cotton Mill. They have come from the isolation of the farms and mountain coves. Many of them are unable to read. Of good stock and, naturally religious, their pride yet keeps them away from any association in which they may appear at a disadvantage. They rarely enter any of our uptown churches. Our little Chapel at Fourth and Cedar streets stands between them and the religious life of the City. Except through occasional individual effort, no other Church is ministering to them, nor is there immediate prospect of any doing so. If they receive the gospel we must take it to them.

For some years past, a Sunday School has been carried on in the Chapel, its attendance fluctuating with the changing population. From this as a base other activities have been engaged in. The work of the past year, in particular, has consisted of a session of Sunday School every Sunday afternoon, a cottage prayer meeting every Friday evening, visiting in the homes of the people, responding to calls for counsel and sympathy in trouble, relief in sickness, and ministry to the dying. The homes are open to us, our workers are cordially received, and, through all these means, good has been done, in the relief of need and instruction in spiritual things.

Results have not always been apparent. Much that has been done can not be set down in facts or summed up in figures. The people are coming and going. But the seed is sown and carried elsewhere to bear fruit.

It is our object, through the teaching of little children, the simple presentation of the gospel message in the home and elsewhere, and by friendly, sympathetic helpfulness in everyday affairs, to further every good work that tends to a clean, healthful life, physical as well as spiritual, in the building up of christian manhood and womanhood. As we bring our own lives into touch with theirs we meet the inevitable response. Just so far as we will, we may help these people to better living.

The outlook for the coming year is encouraging. Our church worker has just entered upon her duties. In the few days she has been with us she has visited over seventy families, meeting a uniformly cordial reception, and opening up possibilities of further helpfulness, among the mothers in the homes and the young girls and the boys in evening gatherings. A school to teach the little children to read has been opened. Other means are in view to secure better conditions contributing to the welfare of the people—domestic, social and spiritual. The enlargement of our Sunday School and prayer meeting work and directly religious ministry in the homes has already begun.

HOLMES BLAIR,

April 10, 1909.

Report of Foreign Missionary Committee

The Committee on Program for the Foreign Missionary Department of the Woman's Board of United Missions held the regular number of meetings as arranged by the Executive Committee, during the year 1908.

In June we had the Rev. E. N. Caldwell, from Taichow, China, to talk about his work.

As the result of a letter read before the Society, from Mrs. Calvin J. Stewart of Richmond, Va., asking for a contribution toward the $50,000 debt fund which the women of the Southern Presbyterian Church had undertaken to raise, this Society contributed $62.50. It was remarkable for the reason that no solicitation other than the reading of the appeal and the sending of copies to those who were absent, should have brought such a generous and ready response. We also have the money on hand to buy a much needed Missionary map of the World for use in our meetings.

May the coming year see more of endeavor and more of achievement.

Report of Home Mission Committee

During the year closing with March, 1909, the Home Mission Committee has endeavored to carry out the plan of work adopted at the reorganization of the Society, that is:—To contribute the sum of $300.00 during the year to the school at Robinsville, Graham County, and send such sums as it could to other schools in the State, to Plumtreee, Mitchell County, to Albemarle and to the Lees-McRae Institute at Banner's Elk. It will be seen therefore that the direction of the Home Mission work has been in the line of education.

It has been the purpose of this Committee to have from time to time a Home Missionary, or a worker in the Home Mission field, present at a meeting of the Board. In October we had the privilege of listening to the Superintendent of Synodical Missions in our State, Rev. R. P. Smith, as he told of the work that was being accomplished in Graham County.

The question of the disposition of funds contributed arose in the Board. The question being whether the Board should continue to send $300.00 to Robinsville, or whether other disposition of funds should be made.

A full discussion was given of this subject, a vote was cast, which resulted in the decision that the Board should continue, for another year, at least, the pledge of $300.00 made by the Randolph Home Missionary to the school at Robinsville, Graham County.

The Chairman is happy to state that all obligations entered into have been fully met, as our Treasurer's Report will show.

This Committee is grateful for the confidence imposed in it by the Board, and trusts that during the year before us, it may be able to do more and better work in His Name, and thereby more fully obey that last command:—"Ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. L. CHAMBERS,

Chairman.

Report of Local Committees

The Victor Mission Sunday School has been carried on as usual. At Christmas a splendid tree and entertainment were given the children. Miss Lea recently engaged by the Church to do Mission work in the Victor settlement has arrived and entered upon her duties.

Several members of the Woman's Board of United Missions have for many years been engaged in faithful work in connection with this Sunday School.

The Young Women's Christain Association is one of the local interests of the Woman's Board of United Missions. The First Church is well represented on the Board of Directors, as eight members including the President, Mrs. F. C. Abbott, belong to this Church. The list of members of the Association includes many of our women, who are also contributors to the building fund. At stated times reports of the active work of the Association and of its plans for the future are given in our meetings and are always received with interest, and the Board stands ready to help the Association whenever opportunity presents itself.

The Woman's Board of United Missions is also represented by two members on the Territorial Committee of the Virginia-Carolinas, which has headquarters in Charlotte. And four Secretaries of the Y. W. C. Association, are valued members of this Board.

The Presbyterian Hospital

After being closed for several months for repairs the Presbyterian Hospital was re-opened on March 15th, with a reception to the public, given by the Woman's Auxiliary. On March 16th the Hospital was again opened for the reception of patients; and the Superintendent's report on March 31st, states that in the two weeks intervening, fifty-two patients were admitted. It will be noted that with its capable Superintendent, splendid corps of nurses, new equipment and general renovation, the Presbyterian Hospital has entered a wider sphere of usefulness. The Preston Memorial Ward, which was for a time closed on account of lack of funds for charity work, has again been opened, and a number of charity cases cared for.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Hospital is composed of members of the various Presbyterian Churches of the city. During the past fifteen months this Board has raised $1500 toward the building of a charity ward in the new Presbyterian Hospital when the Churches decide to build; and has also contributed much to the refurnishing of the Hospital, and furnished three rooms completely. In this Auxiliary the First Presbyterian Church is represented by

Mrs. Geo. Brockenbrough

Mrs. William Kincaid

Mrs. Geo. B. Hanna

Miss Julia Alexander

Mrs. Alfred Brown, recently resigned, was also a member of the Board during 1908.

Florence Crittenton Home

A deep interest is felt in the Florence Crittenton Home. The First Presbyterian Church through some ladies of this Board, solicited and contributed supplies for the Home for the month of January. A member of this Church teaches the Sunday School lesson to the girls on Thursday of each week.

Many useful gifts have been made by members of this Church, a bed and outfit being among the number. During the past year, forty-three girls have found here a home, and twenty-two babies have been born in the Home.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. W. ZIMMERMAN,

Chairman.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association has for many years given most valuable assistance. The Woman's Board is represented in this Auxiliary by a number of members, as well as by the President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Geo. B. Hanna, and the Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Miller.

Presbyterterian Orphans Home, Barium Springs, N. C.

For a number of years one child has been clothed and another supported by the Ladies Aid and Orphanage Society, This organization having been included with the other Societies in the Woman's Board of United Missions still continues this work. Six Circles have been formed recently, by Mrs. George E. Wilson, each Circle raising monthly six dollars for the support of an orphan, making the entire number now supported by this Board, seven. At Christmas Mrs. R. L. Gibbon, assisted by others sent a bountiful amount of supplies to the Home in addition to raising fifty-five dollars for Cristmas expenses of the Orphanage.

Amount contributed to Presbyterian Orphans Home, Barium Springs, N. C., during year April 1, 1908, to April 1, 1909, $139.62.

MISS ALICE SPRINGS,

Treas. Ladies Aid and Orphanage Society.

Amount contributed through Circles to Presbyterian Orphans Home, $72.00.

MRS. W. W. WARD.

Total amount contributed to Presbyterian Orphans Home at Barium Springs, April 1, 1908, to April 1, 1909, $211.62.

Report of the Alexander Home

April 1, 1908 to April 1, 1909

April 1st, 1908, there were 14 children in the Home, matron and cook.

Children received during the year were 29.

Children sent out from the Home to permanent homes were 24.

Number of children now (April 1st) in the Home are 17, besides matron and cook.

Two girls over at Miss Ufford's school at Albemarle.

Largest number of children in the Home during the year was 23.

Smallest number was 11.

House rent paid for one old woman.

Total expenses for running the Home during year, $1506.77.

Received from First Presbyterian Church from Easter collection and monthly subscription $319.35.

Received from various friends outside the Church and from one half of funds from Silver Tea and from fuel fund collection of the Sunday School, $161.89.

Only 37 members of the First Church contribute monthly to the Institution. The First and Second Churches are each held responsible for $600.00 per year and the managers of the Home hope that the amount will be secured from the First Church by subscription. This past year only $319.35 was secured in that way. It is now fifteen years since the present Alexander Home property was given by Mr. R. B. Alexander to the Presbyterian Churches of Charlotte, to be used primarily as a temporary home for foundlings and needy children. The Institution to be managed by a Board of Ladies representing the different Churches. During these years over 500 needy children have been cared for and placed in permanent Christian homes to be raised and educated, besides many others who have been helped, young girls who have found there a safe home until work could be secured, deserted wives, convalescents from Hospitals, and many cases too numerous to mention. It is claimed that for the amount expended much good is done in many ways. Only three salaries are paid, those of matron, cook and laundress. The lady Managers superintend the affairs of the Home, thereby saving Superintendent's salary. This Institution is supported by gifts and monthly subscriptions. Has no endowment and has only one bequest and that of $500.00. Two years ago the building was remodeled and repaired so that it is now a handsome, sanitary and convenient Home, capable of housing twenty-five boys and girls.

Report of Young Ladies Home and Foreign Missionary Society

April 1st, 1908 to April 1st, 1909

The Young Ladies Home and Foreign Missionary Society numbers on its roll seventy-one members. The following officers are:

President—Miss Julia Alexander
Vice-President—Miss Fannie Harris
Secretary—Mrs. Chas. Moody
Treasurer Home Missions—Mrs. S. O. Brookes
Treasurer Foreign Missions—Mrs. W. E. Price

The meetings of the Society are held on the second Tuesday of each month, at the homes of the members. After a business session of one hour, there is a social half hour, when there is opportunity given for all to become acquainted with the new members.

The meetings have been well attended, and much interest is evidenced in the work of the Society.

For three years the Society has been assisting two girls at the Presbyterian College, paying annually sixty dollars for their tuition. These young ladies will graduate this year and both will begin teaching in the fall, one has decided to devote her life to Foreign Missions and will enter upon that work as soon as she is prepared. Seventy-five dollars is pledged annually by the Society to Foreign Missions.

Cuba has been studied with much interest during the year just ended; and at each meeting time has also been devoted to "Items of news from the Home and Foreign Field." The March meeting was devoted to Home Mission Study.

The report of Treasurers is as follows:

HOME MISSIONS

To Albemarle School - - -	$ 27.00

Entire amount contributed to Home and Foreign Missions, $222.15.

During the year ending March 31st, 1908, the Woman's Board, in addition to contributing generously to various local causes, has contributed to Home and Foreign Missions about sixteen hundred dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

JULIA M. ALEXANDER,

President.

The Aid and Orphanage Society

We close our Church year with sadness as, on the eighteenth of March, death removed from our midst, our faithful and beloved Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda Pritchard, who had for so many years labored with unswerving devotion for the upbuilding of the Church she so much loved.

"The Aid and Orphanage Society" has evolved from the "Sewing Society" which was the oldest ladies' organization in the Church. It is now one of the branches of "The Womans' Board of United Missions," which holds its meetings on the first Monday of the month. All Societies (as the name suggests) attend these meetings, though the "Aid and Orphanage" holds a separate meeting on the day following that of the "W. B. of U. M's."

While we have forty-eight names upon our roll, there are rarely more than six or eight members at our special meetings. Some give as a reason for this non-attendance that there is not enough active business transacted to draw the members, so our little band meets faithfully each month and so long as the other members pay their dues promptly we will not complain, although we would no doubt profit by their presence.

We have for sometime past, been contributing to the Orphanage, six dollars per month for the support of an orphan, and clothe another, but some of our zealous members determined to enlarge our bounty, and have succeeded in gaining a number of new members and inducing former members to increase their subscriptions, thereby enabling the Society to support six additional orphans.

While "The Aid and Orphanage Society" labors quietly it has done a good work in the past, and we hope, with the new members recently added, to do even greater things in the future.

We never give entertainments for the purpose of raising money, so are entirely dependent upon the prompt payment of dues for the successful advancement of our work.

At the last meeting, Mrs. Asa Cheek was unanimously elected Treasurer.

The following statement will show how the Society stands financially:

The officers of the Society are as follows:

Miss Leela Beaty, President.

Miss Rose Walsh, Secretary.

Miss Martha Flournoy, Treasurer.

It was best to divide the Society into four bands this year, each band consisting of four girls with one as a leader.

During the year ending March 31st, 1909, $74.84 has been contributed to Missions.

The Preston Band of Covenanters

Fifteen years ago a little company of seven boys met in the old Y. M. C. A. (the 1st Presbyterian Church now being rebuilt) and formed a Boys Missionary Society under the leadership of Miss Lelia Young. This was really the first Covenanter Company, for that movement was not organized in Richmond, Va., by Miss Hawes until this Society was six months old. The name "Covenanter" was not used by this Company for some years. The first officers were as follows:

Randolph Preston, President
Tom Osborne, Secretary
Hazel Holland, Treasurer

The Band was the outcome of the earnest wishes and prayers of Dr. and Mrs. John Preston. The third year the membership had reached forty-four and a busy hive it proved. By work and self-denial many dollars were sent to Home and Foreign Missions, averaging $50.00 per year. The largest amount ever raised in one year was $119.00. A black-board and Missionary Map were purchased for their own use.

An earnest plea is made to parents to urge their boys to become members of this Band and aid in the good work and be trained in knowing of and giving to Missions. The present officers are:

Clyde Walsh, President
Coburn Alexander, Secretary
Willie Kincaid, Treasurer

From April 1st, 1908 to April 1st, 1909, expended for Home Missions to Boys' School at Plum Tree, N. C.:
